

RigNet Partners with USSOCOM to Offer Warrior Care Program Fellowships

March 3, 2020

HOUSTON, March 03, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- RigNet, Inc. (NASDAQ: RNET, the "Company"), the leading provider of ultra-secure, intelligent networking solutions, announced today that it is partnering with U.S. Special Operations Command ("USSOCOM") Warrior Care Program - Care Coalition to place transitioning Special Operation Forces (SOF) service members at RigNet in a fellowship as they prepare to transition out of the military. RigNet will be providing SOF Service Members with valuable corporate experience as they transition home.

"RigNet is very proud of our employees who have served or have family members who have served in the Armed Services," said Steven Pickett, President and Chief Executive Officer of RigNet. "Being able to work with the USSOCOM Warrior Care Program Career Transition Team in providing this opportunity to SOF service members provides RigNet with talented professionals with significant leadership and technical skills that will immediately benefit the company. We are excited to welcome these service members as they transition back from their service."

The USSOCOM Warrior Care Program - Care Coalition Career Transition Team strives to provide eligible wounded, ill, & injured Service Members, who are enrolled in the USSOCOM Warrior Care Program, with a customized career transition plan. As part of this effort, the USSOCOM Warrior Care Program - Care Coalition Career Transition Team works with organizations and companies like RigNet to establish fellowships for Active Duty Service Members who are preparing to transition into the private sector.

As they progresses through the internship, RigNet may offer the SOF service member an opportunity to continue as a full-time employee with the company.
